

Night Markets come alive with delicious smells and vibrant colors. You'll find lots of street food to try, like stinky tofu, wheel cakes, and oyster omelets. Visitors can also engage in traditional games like “Pinballs” (彈珠台), “Ring Toss” (套圈), and “Balloon Darts” (射飛鏢). These markets are a special part of Taiwan's culture, where you can eat, shop, and enjoy the lively atmosphere that shows what Taiwan is all about.
